

lovedia-quintana-cisneros

Tue, 1/26 · 5:42 PM 1:12

SUMMARY KEYWORDS

whiskey bottle camphor croup temporary relief upset stomach mom called discomforts colds quintana smell bottles grandma simple put couple

SPEAKERS

Lovedia, Speaker 3, Speaker 2

LQ Lovedia Quintana Cisneros ✓ 0:02

My name is Lovedia Quintana Cisneros and I have a couple of bottles, it was whiskey I think at one time, but my mom put some, ah, little blocks of camphor and made camphor and that was used when we had headaches or I think maybe even vertigo or had an upset stomach. So that one was camphor. It still smells like camphor.

S2 Speaker 2 ✓ 0:24

Can I smell it?

LQ Lovedia Quintana Cisneros ✓ 0:25

Sure, yeah.

S2 Speaker 2 ✓ 0:26

This is the smell of my childhood.

LQ Lovedia Quintana Cisneros ✓ 0:30

All of ours. And this one I found at my mom's house. My mom's house is over 100 years old. It was sold for 35 cents at one time. It's called _____. And it was for the temporary relief of the discomforts of cough due to simple colds and croup. I guess it never got used because [inaudible].

S3 Speaker 3 ✓ 0:55

I love the stories about alcanfor. My grandma used to send me to, to buy a whiskey bottle so that she could put alcanfor in it. I think.